

Members of Panels for Safeguarding against Harassment and Bullying

Please find detailed information on LGS Johar Town Network's Review Panel below. Each school in the JT Network has its own panel which comprises of a wide representation of stakeholders: individuals from LGS (a mix of senior management and faculty members), members who are parents of students currently enrolled, student members from the senior campuses, and experienced educationalists and human rights activists from outside LGS (henceforth referred to as external members).

Three external members will serve on all the panels for the boys cluster, and an additional three external members will serve on all the panels for the girls cluster.
